York Shodokan Aikido Instructors are Members of Shodokan Aikido UK (SAUK) (a non-profit limited company). In turn, SAUK is a member of the Shodokan Aikido federation, Japan. Shodokan Aikido clubs are under the technical direction of Tetsuro Nariyama Shihan, Shodokan Hombu, Osaka, Japan. York Shodokan Aikido Club is run on a non-profit basis. All fees paid by members and participants are used solely for the running and maintenance of the club, i.e. rent, equipment and administration. No fees are taken for instruction unless specified for a particular event or course.

Details of insurance can be found at the British Aikido Board's web site at www.bab.org.uk/insurance. Details about the York Shodokan Aikido club can be found at www.york-aikido.org which includes useful information such as Aikido history, class structure and the grading syllabus.
